WEDDING:

Nov. 24, 2007

PHOTOGRAPHER:

Rebecca Bouck Photography

CEREMONY & RECEPTION SITE:

Arizona Biltmore Resort & Spa

HONEYMOON:

Bora Bora

During one of many trips the couple took to Sedona, Harry stopped mid-hike to propose to Nicole. The couple dined at their favorite restaurant in town, enjoyed the rest of the day together and then began calling family and friends with their good news. It was important to them to choose a venue that would accommodate their out-of-town guests, and as a former employee at the Arizona Biltmore Resort & Spa, Nicole says she couldn't have dreamed of a classier place to get married. She spent the morning with her mother and sister getting ready, leisurely taking in every detail. "The ceremony, reception, dinner and dancing were all unforgettable and everything we imagined," says the couple. During their honeymoon in Bora Bora over Christmas, the newlyweds lazed on their balcony and sipped champagne.
